in the Reading area

'Capital of the Thames Valley', this major Berkshire town is a modern commercial centre with a major rail station, dedicated bus service to Heathrow and easy access to the M25 and London via the M4. It has a large University, historical Abbey, Victorian architecture and a bustling centre, giving Reading a varied identity. The new Oracle Centre with its Galleria style precinct and many waterside restaurants and bars have changed the heart of the city into a leisure and shopping area for the millennium.
